ORDER

The Court and counsel confer. Counsel present argument. Defendant addresses the Court. The Court places findings on the record and proceeds with sentencing. The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Michael Bravin is hereby placed on probation for a term of two years under the following terms and conditions. Ninety days home confinement except for purposes of employment or seeking employment, and for medical purposes. Defendant shall complete 240 hours of Community service under the supervision of the Probation Officer;

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. During the period of probation that defendant shall pay special assessment in accordance with this judgment's order pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant shall submit to search, at any time, with or without warrant, and by any law enforcement or probation officer, of the defendant's person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects upon reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct by the defendant, or by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions;
4. The defendant shall not access via computer any material that relates to the Band Pro Film & Digital, Inc. The defendant shall not have another individual access the Internet on his behalf to obtain files or information which he has been restricted from accessing, or accept restricted files or information from another person except as it relates to any civil actions to which defendant is a party and limited to files obtained by his attorney and given to defendant directly by counsel;
5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample.

The drug testing condition mandate by statute is suspended based on the court's determination that defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

IT IS ORDERED that defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $25 which is due immediately. Court also orders that defendant pay $5,000 fine payable during the pendency of probation.
